

VENONA
~~TOP SECRET~~

USSR

Ref. No: 3/MBF/T1543

Issued: 5/4/1963

Copy No: 201

NAME NO. 6 REPORTS INTELLIGENCE FROM
AN AIR COLLEAGUE AND HIS ASSISTANT "A" (1943)

From: STOCKHOLM

To: MOSCOW

No: 896

21 Mar. 43

To [Name No. 42]^[i]

From our[a] air colleague and his assistant "A"^[ii] through [Name No. 6].^[iii]

In NORWAY and FINLAND is based the 5th Air

[18 groups unrecoverable]

.....RKINESA[b] 50 per cent of the flying and ground crews were sent south.

There is a maximum of three German divisions in DENMARK. In STOCKHOLM, at BROMMA aerodrome, the Swedes have begun assembling new twin-engined fighters (4-stroke engines mounted to the rear of the wings, driving pusher air screws [OTPA/LKIVAYuShohIE])

[27 groups unrecoverable]

KRONPRINZ[KR WPRINTS].^[iv] In addition to building diesel engines for submarines, repair workshops for the purpose of repairing submarines were sent to COPENHAGEN.^[v] As a result of the recent bombing, they are out of action and cannot be brought back into service in less than six months.

No. 118

[Name No. 59]^[v]

[Notes and Comments overleaf]

Distribution

~~TOP SECRET~~

3/NBP/T1543

Notes: [a] Or: 'an' or 'the'.

[b]KINESA : May be genitive form of KINES.

[c] Apparently a carelessly drafted sentence.

Comments: [i] Name No. 42 : Possibly Capt. (1st Rank) M. A. VORONTSOV.

[ii] A : Unidentified. He has elsewhere been described as a colleague of Name No. 65 - see STOCKHOLM's No. 623 of 23rd February 1943 (3/NBP/T1539).

[iii] Name No. 6 : Unidentified. See also STOCKHOLM's No. 583 of 19th February 1943 (3/NBP/T1530) and No. 1274 of 7th July 1943 (3/NBP/T967).

[iv] KRONPRINZ : May be the small German merchant ship of this name which was requisitioned for naval purposes.

[v] Name No. 59 : Probably Capt. Aleksej T. RADIN, Soviet Naval Attaché in STOCKHOLM.

3/NBP/T1543

